Our vision

Valued - Inspired - Prepared

Our values

We shape our learners to be:

Safely independent - Respectful citizens

Inquisitive thinkers - Confident communicators - Resilient learners

Good Afternoon, as you receive this week's edition of the newsletter, the staff have been in school today carrying out necessary training in lots of areas including safeguarding, HR, specific SEND (autism), medical (epilepsy), subject-specific (using manipulatives in maths) and some IT training too.

The weather has been rather damp this week, and from Monday the temperature is forecast to drop significantly, so please ensure you keep sending your children to school dressed appropriately. Hats, scarves, gloves and coats are the order of the day as we do strive to get the learners outside for breaktimes because it's so beneficial for their health, but also then aids the learning in lessons.

This week, on Tuesday we recognised Armistice day by observing a period of silence as well as specific work in lessons. As always, I was extremely proud of everyone for demonstrating one of the school values and being respectful citizens.

It was lovely to catch up with some of you personally at the NSPCWT event at the Winter Gardens on Wednesday; I know that many more attended earlier in the day and popped by the Westhaven table to catch up with the staff. I hope you all enjoyed the event, it is so valuable to see all that is on offer for families in our county.

Wishing you all a wonderful weekend, whatever you have planned.
